

SBP Law continues expansion: Litigator Ryan Williams joins boutique City firm as partner

As part of SBP Law's expansion plans we are very pleased to announce that Ryan Williams has joined as a Partner in the litigation department. Ryan is a renowned litigator and a recognised client favourite who puts his clients' needs first. His appointment brings 12 years of high-level litigation experience to the firm and further expands the firm's busy litigation department. Ryan will go out of his way to ensure that his clients receive the best possible outcome at the earliest possible opportunity.

He has a wide-ranging practice encompassing all aspects of commercial, property, and "modern chancery" litigation. Ryan frequently advises on complex litigation and has a wealth of experience in the High Court and the Court of Appeal. Having successfully advised clients on a number of high profile reported cases, he thrives on being given repeat instructions.

Managing partner (and Chairman elect) Michael Segen said "Ryan, brings tremendous experience to our busy litigation department, his practice is a natural extension of our full-service litigation offering. Big firm experience with boutique firm service is an excellent fit for us and for our clients."

Commenting on his move to SBP Law, Ryan said "I am extremely excited to be working at SBP Law, their boutique City persona perfectly supports my practice and complements the needs of my clients; I remain ready and able to assist all my clients in any way I can."
